In creating this brand new series, we have listened to travellers' needs and created a series that enables travellers to travel the way they want to. It is a City Diary that takes readers to the best events and festivals around. An Itineraries chapter allows travellers to plan their time effectively. New Neighbourhood structure better reflects how visitors see the city - holistically rather than isolated 'points of interest'. It includes a new Directory of practical information. New Themes section gives eat, sleep and shop information - and allows the reader to access the city by subculture (eating out, gay culture, art and more). It contains a detachable pull-out map. It is written by our Dublin resident and expert. It includes a Bluelist from our website written by a reader. Dublin is served by 87 low cost air routes including 24 from the UK.

Notes for Teachers. From guided tours to hands-on workshops to the ever changing exhibition programme, Dublin Castle is the place to bring students to experience inspirational learning. Free guided tours of Dublin Castle's collection and exhibitions are available for primary and secondary schools. To book a tour or to find.
